

STATE OF HAWAII — DEPARTMENT OF TAXATION
INSTRUCTIONS FOR FORM N-188X
AMENDED INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX RETURN

Purpose of Form N-188X

Use Form N-188X to correct your income tax return, Form N-11, N-12, N-13, N-13EZ or N-15.

If you are changing your Hawaii return, you may also have to change your federal return. Please note that it often takes several months to process Form N-188X. We will figure the interest and will either include it in your refund or bill you for it.

You should use Form N-109, Application for Tentative Refund, instead of Form N-188X in some cases. Use Form N-109 if:

- you are applying for a tentative refund resulting from a net operating loss, AND
- less than one year has elapsed since the end of the year in which the loss or credit arose.

Information on Income, Deductions, etc.

If you have questions, such as what income is taxable or what expenses are deductible, the instructions for the return you are amending may help you. Be sure to use the Tax Table, Tax Rate Schedules, or Capital Gains Tax Worksheet for the proper year to figure the corrected tax. The related schedules and forms may also help you. If you need more information, contact the district office where the original return was filed.

Death of Taxpayer

If you are claiming a refund as surviving spouse filing a joint return with the decedent, write "deceased" and show the date of death in the name and address space of Form N-188X. Also write "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she may also sign. All filers requesting a refund due a decedent must file Form N-110, Statement of Person Claiming a Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer, to claim the refund.

What Attachments to the Return are Required

Attach the appropriate schedule or form to this amended return to explain any change in income, deduction or credit if the individual income tax return and instructions require a schedule or form. For example, if there is a change in the capital gain item, complete Schedule D and/or Schedule D-1 and attach it or both to this amended return.

Where to File

File with the district office where your original return was filed. See page 2 for addresses.

When to File

File Form N-188X after you filed your original return. Generally, Form N-188X must be filed within 3 years after the date the original return was due or 3 years after the date you filed it, whichever is later. A Form N-188X based on a net operating loss carryback generally must be filed within 3 years after the due date of the return for the tax year of the net operating loss.

Preparer Information

If you fill in your own tax return or someone prepares it and does not charge you, the "Paid Preparer's Information" area should remain blank.

Generally, anyone who is paid to prepare your tax return must fill in the blanks in the "Paid Preparer's Information" area of your tax return, and sign in the space provided in the same area.

If you have questions about whether a preparer is required to sign your return, please contact any district office.

The person required to sign your return MUST complete the required preparer information and:

- Sign it, by hand, in the space provided for the preparer's signature (signature stamps or labels are not acceptable).
- Give you a copy of your return in addition to the copy filed with the Department of Taxation.

Net Operating Loss

Attach a statement showing how you figured your net operating loss. You may use Schedule A of Form N-109 for this purpose.

Line-By-Line Instructions Page 1

ABOVE YOUR NAME, ENTER THE CALENDAR YEAR OR FISCAL YEAR OF THE RETURN YOU ARE AMENDING.

Item (a) — Check the box which applies to the return you are amending: Forms N-11 and N-12 are the resident individual long-form returns; Forms N-13 and N-13EZ are the resident individual short-form returns; and Form N-15 is the non-resident return. Indicate the district office where your original return was filed. See "Where to File" on page 2 of these instructions for the addresses of the district offices.

Item (b) — Check the proper box. If the Department of Taxation has asked you to furnish additional information to support any item on your original return and the issue is still open, check the "Yes" box. If the issue has been settled, check the "No" box and if a change was made, use the adjusted figures in column A.

Item (c) — Check the proper box. Any change made by the Internal Revenue Service on your federal return must be reported to the Department of Taxation within 90 days after the federal change is finally determined.

Item (d) — Filing status. If you are changing from separate returns to a joint return, both you and your spouse must sign the amended return.

Note: If you filed a joint return, and you and your spouse decide to file separate returns for the year, both of you must file amended returns on or before the due date (April 20) of the original return.

Column A. — Enter the amounts from your return as originally filed or as you later amended it. If your return was audited, enter the amounts that were determined as the result of the examination.

Column B. — Enter the increases or decreases you are making. Bracket all decreases. Explain each change on page 2, Part II, and attached any related schedule.

Column C. — Add the increase in column B to the amount in column A or subtract the column B decrease from column A. Show the result in column C. For any item you do not change, enter the amount from column A in column C.

If your Amended Return changes only credits, tax, or payments, skip lines 1-7 and start with line 8.

Line 1. — Total Income. On page 2, Part II, explain any changes you make on this line. To figure this amount, add income from all sources, such as wages, interest, dividends, and net profit from business. For Form N-11 filers, this amount is your federal adjusted gross income amount.

Use the reportable income for the respective years as follows:

- 1992, 1993, and 1994 N-12, line 21; N-13, line 11; N-15, line 21.
- 1993 and 1994 N-13EZ, line 5.
